Today's Readings

Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18; 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18; Luke 18:9-14

Gospel Summary:

From time to time our children live in a "me first world," but Jesus wasn't too impressed with the self-centeredness of the Pharisee in today's Gospel. The Pharisee was quite certain that he was a good and righteous man—better than most. For sure, he was better than the tax collector. But as Jesus often did in his teachings, he turned society's ideas upside down. It was really the humble tax collector recognizing his own sinfulness that Jesus said would be exalted. (RCLB)

Holy Communion

We here at Saint Matthew Church have recognized that the altar here in this place is not ours but the Lord's Table. As such, we realize that Jesus is the host of the Eucharistic meal. It is Jesus who invites all to come to His table, a table that has a place for everyone. It matters not what church or denomination you belong to for there is a place for you at this table of Jesus. All that is necessary is that your heart responds to the invitation of Jesus to receive His life from Him in this Eucharistic meal. As a Catholic community, we understand that in the gifts of bread and wine of the Eucharist we actually receive the risen life of Christ Himself. That is why we refer to these gifts as the body and blood of Christ. In this Holy Communion we receive the body and blood, soul and divinity of Christ. Remember that Holy Communion is not a reward for any moral achievement or accomplishment of our own. Holy Communion is God's gift in Christ freely given in order that our lives may be transformed by the life of Christ that we now receive in this Eucharistic meal. Therefore, you are most welcome to receive this Blessed Sacrament with us at this liturgy.

Every Wednesday at 5:15 p.m. we gather together in the church to pray as community this traditional devotion to the Lord Jesus and His mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. This is a rich time of prayer and meditation as we reflect upon the scriptural narrative of the mysteries of our salvation.

As we enter the church, we remember that we are entering a house of prayer and worship, a place of solace and grace. This is sacred space so enter reverently, pray quietly, sing joyfully, listen attentively, give cheerfully, and come back gladly. We look forward to getting to know you so we invite you to join us in the Parish Hall immediately following Mass for conversation.

REMINDER: THIS Friday, November 1, Sacred Heart of Jesus Novena at 6:00 p.m.

Mass of All Saints and All Souls

(Remembering and praying for our loved ones who have gone before us through the valley of death)

As a community of faith, we will be observing the tradition of All Souls Day NEXT Sunday, November 3, at all of our Sunday liturgies. Be sure to bring a framed photo of your departed loved one(s) to place on our Memorial Table.

NEXT Sunday, November 3,
at 12:30 p.m. in the Hall

Come celebrate with us the diaconal ordination of Adelia Sandoval on Sunday, November 10, during the 10:30 liturgy. Please pray for Adelia as she is about to enter the ministry of the catholic church as a permanent deacon.

"Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever." --Psalm 106

Wednesday, November 27, at 7:00 p.m. at

Trinity Episcopal Church, 2400 N. Canal Street,
Orange, CA 92865

We collect non-perishable donations for Western Service Workers Association's (WSWA) food pantry. WSWA provides food, medical care, and other support to local, working-poor families. Greatest needs include peanut butter, jelly, rice, beans, tuna, mayonnaise, pasta and sauce, soups, canned fruits and vegetables, beverages, and hot and cold cereal. We encourage everyone to participate by bringing any of the above-mentioned donated items to church on Sunday, presented during the giving of our tithes and offerings.

Contact person: Bea Tiritilli

INTERFAITH SHELTER NETWORK: The residents of the shelters move about every two weeks to a hosting church, where they receive the assistance of meals and assistance in locating jobs. We collect and donate toiletries, such as soap, toothpaste, shampoo, conditioner, skin lotion, etc., and deliver them to the site. Please give these donations to Ned Bradley. Questions? Call Ned Bradley at 714-392-4845.

- Do not bring food or drinks into the church.
