

Social Justice Notes: Jan. 5, 2020

In attendance: Béa Tiritilli, Mother Jetty van den Berghe, Meredythe Hutchinson

- Jetty said we need to get more active in the community in even semi-political (but nonpartisan) events, such as involvement in LGBT+ events. Meredythe agreed.
- Bea wants to general outreach to other local social-justice groups.
- Jetty said we should do another Muslim-outreach event and to other religions. Jetty will be the official representative to the OC Interfaith Coalition.
- We decided to give Interfaith Shelter Network (ISN) items to Western Service Workers Association (WSWA) and will change the bulletin to match that.
- Starting next month we'll meet the second Sunday of each month
