Today's Readings

Zechariah 9:9-10; Romans 8:9,11-13;
 Matthew 11:25-30

Gospel Summary:

Jesus called those who would follow him "infants." Compared to the Scribes and Pharisees they lacked social standing and religious expertise, but these infants were open to understanding. It was the "wise" who were prevented from hearing Jesus' message because they were arrogant about their position and knowledge. Jesus offered his followers a lighter burden than that of the Jewish teachers. (RCLB)

Holy Communion

We here at Saint Matthew Church have recognized that the altar here in this place is not ours but the Lord's Table. As such, we realize that Jesus is the host of the Eucharistic meal. It is Jesus who invites all to come to His table, a table that has a place for everyone. It matters not what church or denomination you belong to for there is a place for you at this table of Jesus. All that is necessary is that your heart responds to the invitation of Jesus to receive His life from Him in this Eucharistic meal. As a Catholic community, we understand that in the gifts of bread and wine of the Eucharist we actually receive the risen life of Christ Himself. That is why we refer to these gifts as the body and blood of Christ. In this Holy Communion we receive the body and blood, soul and divinity of Christ. Remember that Holy Communion is not a reward for any moral achievement or accomplishment of our own. Holy Communion is God's gift in Christ freely given in order that our lives may be transformed by the life of Christ that we now receive in this Eucharistic meal. Therefore, you are most welcome to receive this Blessed Sacrament with us at this liturgy.

Every Wednesday at 5:15 p.m. we gather together in the church (currently via ZOOM) to pray as community this traditional devotion to the Lord Jesus and His mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. This is a rich time of prayer and meditation as we reflect upon the scriptural narrative of the mysteries of our salvation.

As we enter the church, we remember that we are entering a house of prayer and worship, a place of solace and grace. This is sacred space so enter reverently, pray quietly, sing joyfully, listen attentively, give cheerfully, and come back gladly. We look forward to getting to know you so we invite you to join us in the Parish Hall immediately following Mass for conversation.

We collect non-perishable donations for Western Service Workers Association's food pantry on the first and third Sundays of each month from 10-2. WSWA provides food, medical care, and other support to local, working-poor families. Greatest needs include peanut butter, jelly, rice, beans, tuna, mayonnaise, pasta & sauce, soups, canned fruits & vegetables, beverages, toiletries and hot & cold cereal. Contact person: Béa Tiritilli, (714) 292-2899.

Any information to be added in the bulletin must be sent to Mirella by Tuesday of each week. Her NEW email is 64meems@gmail.com.

Bible Study: Psalm 23-Scripture as a Meal for the Soul

This study will begin on Monday, 7 PM, July 6th and run for 15 weeks. Sessions will be only 20-30 minutes in length. There will be a set of handouts posted on Facebook and on the Saint Matthew webpage.

Scripture is like a meal, best savored in small bites, and slowly chewed and consumed in order to fully savor its nuances of flavor -- stretch your thinking and expand your spirit as you spend time alone or to share with others. We will talk about Psalm 23 phrase by phrase, and provided several translations and interpretations, both from Jewish as well as Christian sources. We will cover just one phrase per week -- try it at whatever pace or intensity you think is good.

Instructions to attend 'live': On Facebook, go to 'Saint Matthew Bible Study' group to the announcement and there will be a Zoom ID link in blue lettering which you should click, and then type in the password 169406.

Instructions to watch the video sessions: If you don't make it to be actually at the study live, then it will be posted each week on the bible study page as well as on our website: www.saint-matthew.org.
